Pictures, directed by Tim Burton and starring Michael Keaton as Batman. The film is a sequel to the 1989 film Batman. It is a reboot of the Batman franchise and takes place ten years after the events of the first film.[1] It follows a new style of Batman, with a serious, noirish tone and actors' likenesses of the film's actors. The film is a sequel to Tim Burton's 1989 film Batman, and is the second film of the four-film franchise based on DC Comics character Batman. Burton continued to direct for Warner Bros. Pictures. . Batman Returns begins with a prologue in which Batman investigates the remains of a cult that worships the Penguin in Gotham City. When investigating, Batman falls into a trap created by the Penguin, who has captured the Joker and taken him to the same cult, hoping to challenge Batman's
