But seriously, when have the Borscht Bunch ever come up with anything less than a solid movie? That's not to say they have a monopoly on shit movies; there are many other directors who are not used to making high-caliber dramas, and who seem to spend most of their time throwing fuel on their bonfires. So who's the champ? In no particular order, you can click on the links or the stars below to see each member's work and find out a bit more about them. But before you do, try to remember that judging a movie is a very subjective activity that depends on a lot of factors, not the least of which is the victim. This is all fun and games, and you can end up hating everyone you come across if you're not careful. So take everything you see with a grain of salt, and you'll be fine! 1) Paul Feig "There's no justice or revenge in the world. Only us." -Mark Levinson (30 Rock) Ouch. So, he played the role of the best friend who you think is secretly gay and secretly wants to fuck you for the entire film. So awkward. 2) Peter Farrelly "If I were a snake, I'd have hibernated." -John Bennett (About Schmidt) Like any good Tarantino fan, we're given to believe that of Farrelly's ex-wife, who is also his first cousin. 3) Tracy Morgan "This is who I want to be. Stunt guy." -Darrel Wayne (Trucker) Thumbs up: black and hispanic. Thumbs down: Jewish. 4) Snoop Dogg "Ok, I got caught running some papers. I
